Q Please settle this argument for us. Did Rose Kennedy want Teddy to run for President this year, or didn't she? We've heard both versions.

Teddy's Mother

A For some time after the deaths of John and Robert Kennedy, family matriarch Mrs. Rose Kennedy wanted very much to see her youngest son reach the nation's highest office in order to carry out the unfinished work of his brothers. For a while, Rose urged him in this direction, though his wife Joan was horrified. But as time passed, even Rose became fearful for Teddy and when she was made aware that he receives more threatening mail than anyone in Congress, Rose decided she did not want him to run.
